Languages

• Same words with different meaning

  – “I don’t feel heard” from a woman means:

    • I feel as though you don’t fully understand what I really mean to say, or care about what I feel. Would you show me that you are interested in what I have to say?

  – Women use generalisations

  – “It’s is not your fault” works for men

Cycles

• Women
  – Self esteem rises and falls like waves
    • Studies show 22 to 35 day cycles – men probably the same
    • Like going into a well vs. men’s cave
  – At bottom is emotional housecleaning
  – If loved then, she will automatically rise again
    • No fixing needed
  – Need the negative feelings to have the positive feelings
    • Not dealing with negative feelings = PMS
  – Tendency to go into a well does not affect work, only relationships
Cycles

- Men need to not take the blame
- Men need to understand that helping seems to make worse – need to hit bottom before rising
- There will be recurring conversations & arguments
  - Men for the right to be free and women for the right to feel upset
  - Men want space and women want understanding
- In a relationship, women feel safe to go into the well

Arguments

- If communication is the most important in a relationship, arguments are the most destructive.
- Negotiate or discuss pros & cons but don’t argue.
- Out of a relationship it is easier to be objective, in one it gets personal.
- Couples start arguing about one thing and then argue about the way they are arguing.
- It is usually the ‘how’ and not the ‘what’ we are saying.
- Arguments for money, children, etc are negotiations – pain comes from the feeling of not satisfying primary love needs.
- Support & communication is very important at difficult times.
Arguments

- Avoiding hurt – temporary relief
  - Fight (Mars) – best defense is offence
  - Flight (Mars) – withdraw into cave
  - Fake (Venus) – pretend there is not problem
  - Fold (Venus) – take blame or responsibility

- Most arguments are a result of:
  - Men feeling that the woman disapproves of his point of view
  - Women disapproves of the way the man is talking to her
Arguments

• Women unknowing start arguments by not being direct when they share their feelings

• Men unknowing start arguments by invalidating women’s feelings or point of view

• Men are prone to argue when they have made a mistake or let down the woman they love
Scoring

- Men
  - Keep score points on the size of the gift/act thus concentrate on getting the big things
  - Have a tendency to give penalty points

- Women
  - Give 1 point to each gift/act
  - Have a tendency to subtract his points from hers to give him zero, if too uneven

Asking for Support

1. Ask for what you are already getting
   - Timing

Keeping Love Alive

- A man with a plan
- A woman with a smile
Most research shows that women and men are more alike than they are different.

Kimmel: “Women and men are not from Venus and Mars, but are both from planet Earth. We’re not opposite sexes, but neighbouring sexes—we have far more in common with each other than we have differences.”
